

DR. LAWRENCE H. WHITE is a Professor of Economics at George Mason University. He specializes in the theory and history of monetary and banking institutions. He received his A.B. from Harvard and his Ph.D. from the University of California.

He has written several books and his works have appeared in both professional and popular media outlets. Dr. White is noted for his contribution to the "Austrian School" of economics.

He has analyzed the theory and history of free banking, a system under which commercial banks and market forces control the provision of banking services. He is currently writing a history of the great economic policy debates of the last hundred years.

Join us for an interesting presentation and perspective from

Dr. Lawrence White

on the topic

“What kind of Monetary Institution would be best for The Bahamas?”

A Central Bank, Currency Board, or Private Currency?

on

Thursday, March 11, 2009, 6:30pm

at

The Atlantis Conference Centre
Paradise Island

Here is what you will learn:

- Discussion on the current monetary system in The Bahamas.
- How the Central Bank of The Bahamas influences the economy.
- Comparisons of our monetary institutions to similar countries.
- What practical alternative monetary systems are available.
- Would a different monetary system better serve The Bahamas.

Dinner Presentation: $65 per person
3-Course Meal. Cash Bar.

To register for the dinner presentation,
go to www.nassauinstitute.org
or call (242) 328-6529 to leave a message

The Nassau Institute

PO Box N-1688, Nassau, NP, Bahamas • Tel: 242 328 6529
email: info@nassauinstitute.org • website: www.nassauinstitute.org